1st Welfare & Policy Conference: "Individual and collective responses to a troubled world", Bordeaux, 4th-5th May 2023

GENERAL INFORMATION

We are pleased to launch the Welfare & Policy Conference #1 supported by the Society for research on Welfare and Policy (WAP) and the Bordeaux School of Economics. This two-day event that aims to discuss recent advances in a broad range of topics related to well-being, health, environmental behavior, political economy, gender, labor markets, migration, development, etc., and related policies. In particular, we would like to take stock of recent evidence on individual and collective behavior in the light of repeated shocks (pandemics, conflicts, natural disasters,...) as well as on consequences and implications for democratic rules, environmental transitions, social and health systems, labor market regulations, etc., for social scientists to be able to assist decision-makers in designing more equitable, efficient and widely supported policies.

Keynote speakers

We are delighted and honored to receive Conchita d'Ambrosio (Luxembourg University) and Yann Algan (HEC, Paris) for the keynote lectures of the 1st WAP conference.

CONCHITA D'AMBROSIO is Professor of Economics at the Université du Luxembourg. She was previously Associate Professor of Economics at the Università di Milano-Bicocca. Her research revolves around the study of individual and social well-being and its determinants, providing measures of various phenomena – such as economic insecurity, multidimensional poverty, relative deprivation, resilience, social exclusion. and the impacts of various life events on measures of well-being. Conchita is the editor of the Review of Income and Wealth and member of the editorial board of the Journal of Economic Inequality.

YANN ALGAN is Professor of Economics at HEC Paris and Associate Dean of Pre-experience Programs. He is a member of the Council of Economic Advisors to the French Prime Minister (CAE) and member of the Scientific Council for National Education. His research focuses on populism and trust, well-being within organizations, and the evaluation of public policy, with particular attention to the role of education, management, and employment policies. He is a member of the Institut Universitaire de France, recipient of two ERC projects from the European Commission, and senior editor of the journal Economic Policy.

1st Welfare & Policy Conference: "Individual and collective responses to a troubled world", Bordeaux, 4th-5th May 2023

PROGRAM: SCHEDULE

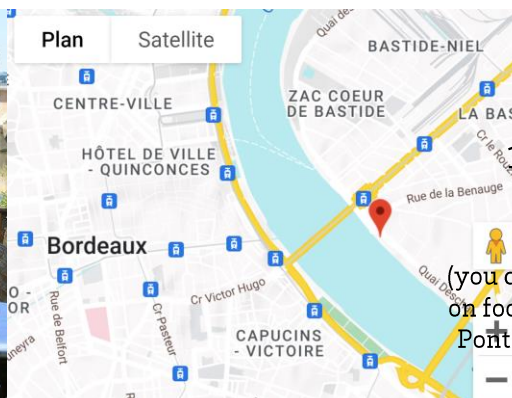

There are 5 series of parallel sessions (A & B on day 1 and C, D & E on day 2). Each session lasts 100 minutes and comprises 4 papers (with exceptions), hence presentations should last 25 minutes per paper (20 min presentation + 5 minutes of Q&A). To be able to host many interesting papers, we have a few sessions with 5 papers (in this case, presentation + Q&A should last 20 min). To be efficient, we would be grateful if you could send us the pdf of your presentation in advance or come to the room of your session in advance to upload your slides.

The conference venue is building H at the Bordeaux School of Economics (BSE) on the Campus of Pessac. Parallel sessions take place on the 2nd floor (rooms H1-202, H1-203, H1-205, H1-206 and H1-207). Keynote lectures takes place in the amphitheater Asselain (groundfloor of building H). Coffee breaks and Friday lunch will be located in the hall just opposite building H. PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Conference Venue

Due to recent events in France and destructions on the Campus at "Place de la Victoire" (Victoire square), we have had to move the conference to a less central location, namely at the Bordeaux School of Economics (BSE), which is located on the Campus of Pessac. If you have booked a hotel near Victoire Square or in the city center, things remain relatively easy since you can take tram B, direction: Pessac, stop: Montaigne-Montesquieu. This is the easiest and fastest way to reach BSE (around 20-30 minutes) given traffic. The address is:

Bordeaux School of Economics (BSE),
Université de Bordeaux
16 avenue Léon Duguit, Bât. H
33608 Pessac

The campus is described on the map below. We circle the building H where BSE is located, as well as the tram stop (line B) and the car park (in case you come by Uber or taxi). Amphitheater Asselain is located on the groundfloor of building H and rooms for parallel sessions are on the 2nd floor.

To reach the conference venue

Detailed indications can be found at the end of this page: <https://www.bse.u-bordeaux.fr/en/contact-us/> But here is the essential information to reach BSE:

From the airport: by far the easiest is to take a taxi or Uber (25 €, 20-25 min)

From the train station: three main options:

- taxi/Uber (20-30 €, 30-35 min depending on trafic)
- or bus "Liane 10" (direction «Gradignan – Beausoleil», and bus stop Montaigne – Montesquieu, see: <https://www.infotbm.com/en/lines/01>)
- or walk to Place de la Victoire (10 min) and take the tram B (direction: Pessac, stop Montaigne-Montesquieu; 20 min)

From Bordeaux downtown: the easiest is to take the tram B (direction: Pessac, stop Montaigne-Montesquieu; between 20 and 30 min)

To reach the center of Bordeaux

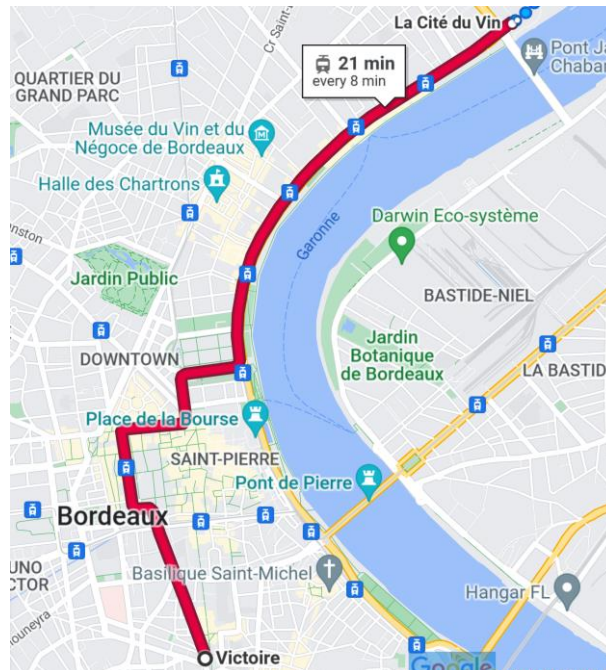

From the airport: by taxi/Uber (around 25-35€ depending on the hour, journey around 30 mn) or by bus "Liane 1+", direction "Gare Saint-Jean" (different stops in the old town / around 50mn).

From the train station: you can reach various parts of the old town with bus 9 or tram C. If your hotel is near Victoire Square, you can easily walk from the train station (10 min).

Hotels and old town

We do not recommend specific hotels but there are many nice places in the old town of Bordeaux. The map below shows the journey by tram (line B) from Place de la Victoire to the Wine museum (Cité du vin). All the area along this tram line is the old town, but the main historical center is between Place de la Bourse and Place de la Victoire. We recommend to take a hotel around there, at walkable distance to the tram B.

For visits, we recommend in particular the Place de la Bourse (on the quays) and the Saint Pierre district, with a stroll that can lead you to the Grand Théâtre, the Place Pey Berland (where the Cathedral is), the Place Camille Jullian (check the arty cinema located in an old church!), and of course the different wine bars on the way...

During your visit, you may also want to discover the region and the city of Bordeaux, please find some info at: <https://wapsociety.org/bordeaux>
